

There have been a lot of calls regarding the smoke in Carling Township. The fire department has investigated and has determined that the smoke is from the Key River fire and Carling residents should not be alarmed. The fire department does want to remind people that it is still very dry despite the rain today and that if anyone does see flames at any point to call 911 right away.