

If you work in construction, the rules for mandatory WSIB coverage have changed. Do you run your own construction business? Are you the purchaser of construction services? Big or small, with workers or without, you still need to know what's changed.

Find out what it means for you.

WSIB have a webpage www.needwsibcoverage.ca that contains information regarding mandatory coverage in the construction industry, contact information, online presentation regarding the legislation and a link to sign up for one of our information sessions. You can also access this information by visiting our main page at www.wsib.on.ca.